"GOOD BYE."

Farewell! farewell! is often heard
From the lips of those who part;
Tis a whisper tone—tis a gentle word,
But it springs not from the heart.
It may serve for the lover's closing lay,
To be sung 'neath a summer's sky;
But give me the quivering lips that say
The honest words—"Good bye!"

Adieu! adieu! may greet the ear,
In the guise of courtly speech;
But when we leave the kind and dear,
Tis not what the soul would teach.
When we grasp the hands of those
We would have forever nigh,
The flame of friendship bursts and glows
In the warm, frank words—"Good bye!"

The mother sending forth her child
To meet with cares and strife,
Breathes through her tears, her doubts and fears
For the loved one's future life.
No cold "adieu," no "farewell" lives
Within her closing sigh;
But the deepest sol' of anguish gives
"God bless thee, boy! Good bye!"

Go, watch the pale and dying one,
When the glance has lost its beam—
When the brow is cold as the marble stone,
And the world a passing dream;
And the latest pressure of the hand,
The look of the closing eye,
Yield what the heart must understand,
A long—a last "Good bye!"

"How much better is a man than a sheep!"

The English laws, within the memory of the oldest individual, decided that a man was worth about one shilling more than a sheep; for they used to hang a man for stealing any animal worth five shillings. Nothing short of the gallows could atone for stealing a fat, stout wether, while the crime of stealing a lamb met with a lighter punishment. So rigorously did the English laws carry out their revised statute, "Whoso shedeth sheep's blood, by man shall his blood be shed;" that their lack of discrimination between the ages of animals probably gave rise to the proverb, "One may as well be hung for a sheep as a lamb." Daniel O'Connell, in the great Anti-Capital Punishment Meeting, recently held in Exeter Hall, that when Sir Samuel Romilly endeavored to raise the price of human life, in cases of felony, from five shillings to forty shillings, there was almost a scream of dissent to the proposition, as a violation of all precedents, as if the raising the price of life to 35s. more would cause a tremendous increase of crime. —Christian Citizen.

VICE.—Vice is too often dressed in false colors. This is the reason why thousands of the young and thoughtless bow to her shrine—"first pity" it may be, "then embrace her." If vice were painted true to life, where is there a youth who would not turn from her with disgust; for what is vice?

"A monster grim and awful, 'tis
Black as the noon of night;
With horrid brow and demon phiz,
And eyes of burning light;
Beneath a fair and lovely mask,
Her ugly form she hides—
While smiling, she pursues her task,
And thoughtless wretches guides."

MAKE WAY FOR THE LADIES!—We learn from the Frankfort (Ky.) Commonwealth, that Judge Kinhead lately performed a very handsome and acceptable act, by the appointment of Mrs. Trimble, the accomplished and estimable lady of the late John Trimble, as Clerk of the Carter Circuit, in the place of her deceased husband.

A COMPLIMENT.—The London Standard, speaking of manufactures, says that nearly all the recent mechanical contrivances introduced into our factories for dispensing with human labor, are of American invention.

The legislature of Michigan has passed a law abolishing capital punishment, by a vote of three to two.

FROM TORISCO.—We learn from Capt. Eldridge, of the schooner Sarah, from Tobasco, which port she left May 25th, that the authorities at that place were making little or no preparations for War. The news of the 8th and 9th had not reached Tobasco. An order from the Government was hourly expected, to seize the American vessels in port. A Yucatan schooner had just arrived from Vera Cruz. She had been taken by the American squadron and released. Tobasco was on the eve of another revolution, and said to be in favor of Santa Ana. One of the leaders of the revolution had been seized by the authorities and cast in prison. Captain Eldridge paid one hundred dollars to a steamer for towing his schooner over the bar.

THE CAMPAIGN AGAINST MEXICO.—A Washington letter well says—

"An idea may be formed of the contemplated operation against Mexico, by estimates which are being prepared at the proper office, for the following means of transportation. 2000 wagons, 5000 miles, 6000 horses, and 400 oxen. These facts speak stronger than any comment I could make."

To preserve Flowers.—Pour water into a flat dish; in the centre of the dish place a vase of flowers, and over the vase a bell glass with its rim in the water. This will exclude the external air, and the evaporation, which takes place under the glass, keeps the flowers constantly moist, and they will remain fresh for a long time.

Our frail bodies are tottering habitations; every beat of the heart is a rap at the door, to tell us of our danger.

No one loves to tell a tale of scandal, except to him who loves to hear it.

Go barefoot rather than do a dishonest thing. It is better to have one's feet dirty than his hands.

Peach Trees.—Plant hollyhock around the roots of peach trees. The peach worm will not trouble them afterwards.

It was remarked of Theodosius that he preferred marrying his daughter to a man who lacked wealth, rather than one who lacked sense. Had all fathers been of the same opinion, what a lot of fools the world would have been spared.

A young man in Philadelphia, fearing he had got the miltion from his sweetheart, settled his suspense by suspending himself to a rope. He was taken out of that noose by some friends, and is yet a good subject for the noose hymenial.

Nevertheless, this extraordinary cat is the greatest favorite with the cook, chambermaid, and all the servants.

Though a man without money is poor, a man with nothing but money is still poorer.

A GOOD ONE.—"My dear, what shall we name our babe?" said Mr. Smith to Mrs. Smith, the other day.

"Why, huz, I've settled on Peter."

"Peter! Good Lord! I never knew a man with the simple name of Peter, who could earn his salt."

"Well, then, we'll call him Salt Peter."

We have never met with any thing in poetry more beautiful and true, than the following eight lines from Metastasio. They are an incarnation of those truths which from year to year present themselves more forcibly to the mind, as experience and observation increasey,—bexten ded intercourse with the world, and our fellow-beings from the highest to the lowest class:

If every one's internal care
Were written on our brow,
How many would our pity share,
Who raise our envy now!

The fatal secret whip reveal'd,
Of ev'ry aching breast,
Would prove that only white conceald
Their lot appears the best.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1846.

Reported for the Newport Daily News.
RHODE ISLAND LEGISLATURE,
JUNE SESSION.

Tuesday Morning.

THE DAY.—This is the great Masonic gala-day, and one that will probably be long remembered in Newport, not only by our own citizens, but by the thousands who will flock here to participate in the ceremonies of the occasion, as well as those who come because there is something to be done. Steamboats, stages, sail vessels, and all other kinds of vehicles will be put in requisition, and our quiet town will be a "busy map," in a few hours, when the parade will commence. The Grand Lodge meets at 9 o'clock, for the election of Officers, and the transaction of such other business as usually comes before them, at this time. The procession will be formed at the Lodge, between 10 and 11 o'clock, composed of the different Lodges assembled, and move through Spring, to one of the lower streets; thence up Thames, to its junction with Farewell street, at the Liberty tree, to the North Baptist Church.

The exercises at the church, will consist of singing by the choir, for the occasion, which, we understand, is under the charge of Col. Benjamin Marsh, Jr., and Gen. Thomas Stacy, Jr.; Prayer; Oration by the Rev. George M. RANDALL, of Boston, and music by Donworth's Brass Band, from New York, which has been engaged by St. John's Lodge, No. 1, of this town.

The body of the church, and the wall pews, will be reserved for the Masons, and such ladies as join the procession at the Town Hall, on its march up. The galleries will be opened for the reception of ladies at 10 o'clock.

At the conclusion of the services, the procession will again form, and move down Farewell and Marlborough, to Thames street, down Thames to Bowery, up Bowery, to the OCEAN HOUSE, where a dinner will be served up.

Tickets for the dinner, one dollar each, may be obtained of the Committee, one of whom will be at the Masonic Hall in the morning; and those who intend dining with them, will do well to purchase tickets in advance, to avoid confusion, and so that all the necessary arrangements may be made.

We shall publish an evening edition of the News, as soon as the ceremonies are over, containing a full account of the doings of the day,—such as the formation of the procession, a description of it, on its route, at different points, the services at the church, and a description of the Hall, and dinner at the Ocean House, together with the toasts, speeches, &c. We shall endeavor to have our paper out in season for those who go in the evening boats.

THE SPLENDID STEAMER ROBIN WILLIAMS, now on the route between this place and Providence, will discontinue her trips after to-morrow, her proprietor having made arrangements to place her on the North River, between New York and Albany. She is a beautiful boat, and we regret that there is not travel enough to keep her here; but we are so completely at a sort of jumping off place, that we are out of the reach of everything that is worth having,—some things, however, we have enough of.

COSTS OF TRIAL.—The expenses attendant upon the trial of Wyatt, at Auburn, is two hundred dollars per day. They already amount to nearly three thousand dollars.

The House met at 10 o'clock, the Speaker in Chair. The roll was called by the Clerk, and there being a quorum present, the House proceeded to business.

A message was sent to the Senate, informing them that the House was ready for business.

A message was received from the Senate, informing the House that they were ready to proceed to business.

A message was then sent to the Senate, inviting them to join the House in prayer.

The two Houses joined.

Prayer offered by the Rev. Mr. Thayer.

Amos Salisbury, of the town of Scituate, presented his credentials as a member of the House, and was sworn in.

Several petitions were read and referred to their appropriate committees.

An act to prevent cattle running at large in the town of Warren, passed to a second reading, and was referred to the judiciary committee.

An act in addition to an act entitled an act concerning Crimes and Punishment, passed to a second reading, and was referred to the judiciary committee.

The House then adjourned till 3 o'clock.

Afternoon,

The House came to order at 3 o'clock.

Several petitions were read and referred to their appropriate committees.

Several reports from the Judiciary committee, were read and accepted.

An act in addition to an act, concerning crimes and punishment, were read and laid on the table.

Petition of Abigail M. Clark, for divorce, was referred to the committee on Judiciary.

Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, was assigned for the discussion of private petitions.

Report of the Committee on the Touro street Synagogue Fund was read, and accepted.

Report of the Committee on the General Treasurer's Account, was read and accepted.

A message from the Governor of Connecticut in regard to the boundary line between this State and Connecticut, was read and returned to the Senate.

Report of the Town Council of the town of Newport, on the Jewish Synagogue Fund, was read and accepted.

House adjourned to 10 o'clock, this morning.

CLOSE WORK.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Courier, confirms the rumor that the English cabinet were not unanimously in favor of the proposition to our government. He says:

"If what I have heard this night be true, we have escaped as narrowly from a conflict with England upon this question, on the other side of the water as here. It comes to me from a quarter entitled to credence, that the terms to which we have assented, were carried in Her Majesty's Privy Council, by a majority of barely one, the Premier voting against them."

The treaty of course will be ratified by the British government. The proposition was their own, and has been promptly accepted by our government without modification. They cannot now refuse to ratify the treaty, without assuming all the blame and responsibility which will attach to a war between the two countries.

WE HAVE SEEN notice, going the rounds of the papers, of a cow that gave fifty pounds of milk, in one day. Mr. Geo. Armstrong, of this town, has a cow, ten years old, which gave at two milkings (night before last and yesterday morning) sixty-and-a-half-pounds. Who has got a cow that can beat that.—Newport News.

Fidalgo pride ought to induce the calf who wrote the Tiger hoax, to tell a bigger story than that.—Boston Daily Bee.

Well, Mr. Bee man, as he cannot be found, suppose you, as his next lineal descendant, commence the work.

ORDER OF ARRANGEMENTS.—The following is the order in which the ceremonies at the Church will be observed to-day, at the celebration of the Grand Lodge of Rhode Island.

1. VOLUNTARY, on the Organ.
2. ANTHEM.
3. PRAYER, and selections from Scripture, by Rev. Geo. W. Hathaway, Grand Chaplain of the State.
4. ODE.
5. ADDRESS, by Rev. George M. Randall.
6. MUSIC, by Dodworth's Band.
7. ODE.
8. BENEDICTION.

There was so little business transacted by the Legislature yesterday, that we did not deem it an object to issue our evening edition. We give a report of all that was done, in this morning's paper.

At a meeting of the Common Council of the city of Boston, last Thursday evening, a vote was passed, authorizing the Mayor, with the advice of the Committee on Finance, to borrow $2,500,000, for the purpose of introducing water into that city.

RHODE ISLAND SABBATH UNION.—The annual meeting of the Rhode Island Sabbath Union was held at the First Baptist Meeting House, in Providence, on Tuesday, June 16, 1846, at 10 o'clock A. M.,—the President, Rev. Dr. Wayland, in the Chair.

The Report of the Executive Committee was presented by Rev. J. N. Granger, Corresponding Secretary. It was accepted, and ordered to be placed on file.

The following named gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year, viz:

President—Rev. Dr. Wayland.

Vice Presidents—Hon. Henry T. Cranston, Hon. George Engs, Beijig Hoppin, Esq.

Executive Committee—John Kingsbury, Esq., Rev. Samuel Osgood, Rev. Dr. Cleveland, Mr. James H. Read, Rev. Mr. Douglas.

Corresponding Secretary—Rev. James N. Granger.

Treasurer—Stephen Arnold, (s. o.)

Recording Secretary—C. H. Dabney.

Several Preambles and Resolutions were offered and adopted, and among them the following, by the Rev. Mr. Jameson, viz:

Whereas, a new steamboat, called the Roger Williams, has been put upon the route between this city and Newport, which is accustomed to perform regular trips upon the Sabbath, as well as upon other days of the week, thus violating the moral sense of the community and the law of God;—therefore,

Resolved, That the Executive Committee be requested immediately to open a correspondence with the proprietors of said boat, and to use all means, allowed by our constitution, to induce them to discontinue the running of their boat upon the Lord's Day.

(3) All ye dancers, bear in mind that Mr. Eddy's School commences to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon, for the Ladies, and in the evening, for Gentlemen. It was necessarily postponed last evening, on account of the Masons meeting at the Hall to make arrangements for their celebration.—See Mr. Eddy's advertisement in another column.

GUN METAL.—It has been ascertained that gun metal, will sustain a pressure of 190 tons to the square inch, before being crushed. Iron commonly sustains but from 50 to 60 tons.

BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

IMPORTANT FROM THE ARMY.

By the arrival of the steamer New York, advices from Brazos Santiago to the 9th ult., at half past 10, A. M., have been received. We have Galveston papers to the 11th inst. The news of Gen. Taylor's promotion to the grade of Brevet Major General, has diffused joy through all ranks in the Army, and in the State of Texas.

A letter was received in town yesterday, which stated that Gen. Arista had sent proposals to Gen. Taylor for an armistice, and that he had established his head-quarters at Monterey, with 15,000 men. Taylor is said to have sent back an answer that he would meet Gen. Arista at Monterey.

News was anxiously expected from Col. Wilson's expedition to Riohosa, as it is stated that Canales and all his force, consisting of from 1200 to 1400 cavalry, are concentrated there, and will no doubt show fight. Colonel Wilson's command amounts to 600.—New Orleans Tribune, 14th.

THE OREGON TREATY.—The treaty is short—contains but five articles, and they are as follows—

Art. 1. Fixes the territorial boundary between the United States and Great Britain, west of the rocky mountains, on the line of 49 degrees, till it reaches Queen Charlotte's Sound, and then through the Straits of Fuca to the ocean, which gives to Great Britain Vancouver's Island.

Art. 2. Declares the navigation of the Columbia river, up to where it strikes the line of 49 degrees, to be free to the Hudson's Bay Company, during the continuance of its charter.

Art. 3. The rivers, ports and harbors north of 49 degrees to be free to the commerce of both nations.

Art. 4. Indemnity for the forts, &c. trading stations of the Hudson's Bay Company, south of 49 degrees, and of the Americans north of the same, if any there be.

Art. 5. Indemnity for private property of citizens or subjects who may be south or north of 49 deg, if they wish to retire within their own territory.

The Great English Physician.

AMONG the many eminent Physicians, whose names have been recorded in history, and handed down to posterity as skillful operators and scientific practitioners, who by their extraordinary knowledge of Anatomy, Physiology, Chemistry, and the Matter Medicæ, there is not one who occupies a more elevated station in the eyes of his professional brethren, even, than the GREAT ENGLISH PHYSICIAN, Sir ASTLEY COOPER, the original inventor of Sir Astley Cooper's Pills. These truly celebrated Pills, unlike all other purgatives in the form of Pills, do not debilitate or weaken the patient, while under their influence, neither do they gripe, or produce sickness, or nausea. In cases of Cholæ, Bilious Pevs, Fever and Ague, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Worms, Piles, Gravel, Coughs, Influenza, and all diseases arising from change of climate, temperature of weather, IMPROVED TONE OF THE STOMACH, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD,—these valuable Pills are the most efficacious medicine in the world. RE-OPENING OF THE UNITED STATES CLOTHING STORE.

A still greater revolution in the sale of READY MADE CLOTHING. New Store and new Goods, at the old stand, where the public have been favored with so many good bargains. 91 Thames street, one door north of Messrs. W. B. & F. J. SWAN'S.

THE PROPRIETOR of this Establishment has the pleasure of informing the people of Newport and its vicinity, that he has leased the new and commodious store, 91 Thames street, for the purpose of carrying on the Ready Made Clothing Business, where the public may be assured that they will always find on hand the largest assortment of Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the place, as well as the lowest prices. If I can but induce the people to call upon me, I will give them the most positive proof of the truth of this assertion; as I am determined to secure for the United States Clothing Store a tremendous run of custom, and, aware as I am, that competition is so severe, that the only mode of success is to offer my Goods at a small advance on Cost. Will the people call upon me? I will give them the most positive and pleasing evidence of what I say; still more, I will not urge them with undue persuasion to purchase what they do not want. The custom of forcing goods upon people has become so prevalent that they are sorely perplexed to know where they can go and be allowed the use of their own judgment in selection of Goods. Once more I beseech you to call and examine my stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of a large and good assortment of FROCK and DRESS COATS, of a variety of styles and colors; also, a large quantity of TWEED FROCK and SLACK COATS; 2 or 3 dozen of the GOLD MIXED TWEEZ, a most beautiful article for summer, Kentucky jeans, and a great variety of other kinds, too numerous to mention.

Jackets.—Blue Broadcloth Jackets, made expressly for the United States Clothing Store, and warranted as good as custom made; together with Blue, Black, and Mixed Satins; Black Bombazine, and Green Brize Jackets, of various qualities and prices.

Painted.—Superfine black and blue black dress Cassimere, " " " " " Broadcloth, Doe Skin and figured Cassimere; Super do, do, Plaid Satinets, Fancy do, Vermont Pants, Canada Grays do. Vests.

A rich assortment, consisting of some beautiful Cassimere patterns, some straight collars; Figured Satins, Plaids, and Stripes, do, Plain do, Silk and Worsted, black Silk Velvets, Dark Valencia, black Lutestring and Bombazine, do. As well as the above articles, I have a great variety of Coats, Pants, Vests, and Jackets, made of various kinds of goods, which go to make up a full assortment, but which it is needless to specify.

Furnishing Goods.

I challenge the place to show such an assortment. I have Shirts of the latest French styles and patterns, with yoke necks, from $1.25 to $2.00; also, common Shirts, with linen bosoms and collars, from 75c to $1.50. Linen Bosoms, plain, pleated, and Russet, from 25c to $1.00. Linen Collars of all styles and qualities, from 8c to 25c. Cotton Flannel Shirts and Drawers, Lamb's wool, do; Portsmouth, do; Red twilled Under-shirts and Drawers; Hickory Shirts and Overalls.

HANDKERCHIEFS.—Twilled Spotsfield; Plaid, do, figured Pongée, white and red; do; Bandanna, do, &c. &c.

Stocks and Cravats.

Fancy Silk and Satin Tye Stocks; Bombazine and Black, do, do; Satin ends, do; Bow, do; Plain, do; Bombazine Bow and Satin pleated Stocks; Rich figured Silk and Satin Cravats and Hanks; Italian Silk Hanks, Black French, do, Linen, Muslin, Madras, and Gingham, do.

HATS and CAPS; the assortment is very large—call and examine for yourselves.

Suspensives of every description, from 8c to $1.25. Silk, Gingham and Cotton Umbrellas; Hickory, Palm Wood, and Rattan Canes.

Seamen's Clothing; Oil Suits; Reeling Jackets; Glazed Hants; Overalls, &c. &c.

Trunks, Valises, and Carpet Bags; also Ladies Hat Cases; Fancy Articles, and Perfumeries.

Also—R. B. EDE'S celebrated Hedyosmum or concentrated Prussian Essence, combining all the fragrant properties of the well known odoriferous compound, acknowledged by the Royal Family and Nobility, the most elegant perfume for the assembly or boudoir, imparting to the handkerchief a very agreeable, refreshing and lasting odor.

Boys' Clothing.

The United States Clothing Store stands unrivaled in the sale of Boys' Clothing; and I have now on hand a large assortment of blue and black Broadcloth Suits, that will fit boys from 4 years old to ten. Also, a large assortment of Fancy suits of the best French Cassimere. Don't forget the number, 91 Thames street, sign of the large Window.
